Booking:

A booking can only be considered confirmed upon receipt of the completed forms with the requested deposit.

Cancellation:

The Club reserves the right to cancel or amend any booking. The deposit is returnable if the Club should cancel. If the Society cancels and an alternative date cannot be arranged that year, the deposit is non-returnable.

Catering:

Catering requirements must be completed on the booking form. Any special requirements must be discussed directly with the Caterer. Numbers must be confirmed at least 3 days before the day and if, on the day, numbers are fewer than those previously confirmed, a charge will be made for the shortfall.

Etiquette:

Normal standards of etiquette are expected. All players must respect the course and repair pitch marks, rake bunkers and replace divots.

Tees:

All groups will start at the first tee. Gentlemen will play from the Yellow tees and Ladies from the Red tees unless otherwise arranged.

Trolleys:

The Club reserves the right to ban trolleys should the weather conditions make this necessary. It is advisable to contact the Club before arrival to check if there is a trolley ban.

Prizes:

The Professional's shop is well stocked with prizes for your day.

Dress rules:

Normal golf attire is expected on the course. In the Clubhouse smart casual is acceptable but we would not like to see trainers, ripped jeans, football shirts or sandals. We reserve the right to request a person to change if their dress is considered unacceptable for the occasion, otherwise permission to play the course or use the Clubhouse may be refused.

Mobile phones:

The use of mobile phones is only permitted in the car park.

Disclaimer:

Saddleworth Golf Club will not be liable or responsible to any visitor for any accident, any injury suffered or any belongings, equipment or vehicles in or on the property of the Club. Visitors are expected to have adequate insurance cover against third party liability as well their own all risks cover.
